PREFACE.

In presenting this work to the public, I have been delayed by a combination of circumstances beyond my power or control; among the most prominent of which is the laborious task of numbering the buildings, which is now completed as far as it could be, which will enable me to avoid most of the errors and imperfections of past editions. In this, my first, I have endeavored to make it, every part and portion, correct and unobjectionable. The work will on examination speak for itself; it needs no praise from me. That there has been a steady increase of business and population in our city is seen and felt by us all; and when we look around and behold the great number of buildings being erected—cotton and bagging and rope factories, white-lead works, furnaces, steamboats, public buildings, &c.—springing up as if by magic—we may justly anticipate that the

QUEEN CITY OF THE RIVERS

Will yet be the second city in the Union. Look back twenty-five years, with a rail fence and stumps on Main street, with a population of about 1600; then anticipate twenty-five years to come: should we continue to increase in the same proportion, in the year 1870 this city will contain a populatian of 200,000, with Shippingport and Portland villages, submerged in our lengthened streets. Many obstacles, however, may be in the way of our rising greatness: One very great detriment will be found in our water accommodations. Many objections have been made to the establishment of public water-works, and a newspaper war kept up on the subject, each party contending for their position. To each citizen of the conflicting parties we would respectfully say: rid yourself of all prejudice, and go in for the public weal—take a view from the centre of the city, and we are confident your mind will be made up that water-works are not only practicable, but that they must and shall be established here. When this shall be consummated, an immense impetus will be given to the growth of Louisville.

THE AUTHOR.

EXPLANATIONS.

Throughout this DIRECTORY, the firms read as they are styled in business, for instance, J. H. Colston, Heth & Halbert, &c., and are repeated alphabetically after the name of each member of the firm—thus designating the firms to which they belong.

In numbering the houses, the following is the order observed:—All the parallel streets, (Main, Market, &c.,) number from West to East, beginning at 18th street, odd numbers on the right, even on the left. Cross streets from the river or northern to their southern extremities, even numbers on right, odd on the left.

In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For instance, if Baley is sought, not look for Bailey—for Schneider, not look for Snyder—for Schmidt, not look for Smith—and vice versa.

The words street, office, and the prepositions of, at, on, with, &c., are not expressed but understood. The place of business is placed first.

ABBREVIATIONS—h stands for house or hotel—c corner—bds boards—ab above—bl below—bt between—e east—w west—n north—s south—op opposite—lab laborer—cab cabinet—wid widow—m maker or manufacturer—f firm, &c. In some instances, the vowels are omitted, as dlrs for dealers, gds for goods, prprtr for proprietor, &c.

Old Clothes made new!! at "BILLY LLOYD'S"
Chemical Scouring Establishment!!!

WILLIAM A. LLOYD

Would most respectfully inform the citizens of Louisville, Jeffersonville, and New Albany, that his shop is still at the same place, on 5th street, opposite the Court House, where he still continues to do up old clothes in a style that cannot be surpassed in the city—"a word to the wise is sufficient!"

"ECONOMY IS THE ROAD TO WEALTH!"—OLD CLOTHES MADE NEW!!—scouring done on chemical principles!!!—Dyeing warranted not to smut, and the colors guaranteed to stand. Grease, Tar, Wax, Paint, Pitch, Varnish, Oil, or any thing of the kind, extracted from Dress Coats, Pants, Overcoats, Cloaks, Vests, Carpets, or any description of linen, cotton, silk, velvet, or satin clothing or goods of any kind, without the least injury to the cloth or color. Gentlemen, bring on your old clothes, and have them done up in a style that cannot be surpassed, even by the Parisan dandies! Remember—"a stitch in time saves nine!"

Persons frequently hasitate about having their clothing scoured and renovated on account of the many SOAP IMPOSTERS, who ruin cloth by scouring with soap.

Carriage cushions, hangings, pulpit covers, sofa and chair covers, window hangings, carpets, and hearth rugs cleansed, dressed, &c, and made to appear as when new.

Gentlemen and Ladies, give LLOYD a call, and be convinced that "some things CAN be done as well as others!" His terms are extremely low and accommodating. Bring on your work! Remember, at "BILLY LLOYD'S," No. 97, 5th street, opposite the Court House.

☞LLOYD'S celebrated "SPIRIT OF SOAP," for extracting Grease, &c, for sale. WM. A. LLOYD.

To my Country Customers,

I am under lasting obligations, and am truly grateful for the unbounded support they have so liberally extended. If paying the highest prices for produce, and selling the cheapest groceries, will be either an evidence of my gratitude, or an inducement to my country friends to visit me, I might as well make room at once for their wagons, and prepare to load them

To my City Customers.

I am thankful for the many past favors and the extensive patronage heretofore received. Having made further arrangements for a continual supply of the very best family Groceries that can possibly be found, and my store being recently fitted up and enlarged, the better to adapt it to a general and extensive Grocery and Produce Business, I hope to continue to merit that share of support heretofore so liberally bestowed.

My Brother at the South, and my friends in Baltimore, Boston, and New York, give Epicures and Connoisseurs no cause to complain of their selections.

I continue to purchase from the country, at highest market rates, Flaxseed, Feathers, Beeswax, Ginseng, Bacon, Tallow, Rags, Dried Fruit, and country produce generally.

Captains of boats, and those sending orders from a distance, may rely that they will be attended to with promptitude and punctuality.
